

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
DIRECTOR OF MAJOR PROJECTS

Pascal Martin-Daguet
Phone: +33 6 6891 7926
Email: pmdaguet@outlook.com
Telegram: @pmartindaguet
www.linkedin.com/in/pmdaguet

A visionary and innovative CEO for whom the sustainability of any organization is key.
An extensive experience in the management of companies and of large and complex construction projects in France and internationally.
A passion for sustainability to transform and organize fairly people, the environment and finances for a prosperous future.

Key competencies

- Management and administration of companies and business units, transformation, strategic vision, action plans, restructuring of organization in jeopardy.
- Decarbonisation, CSR, climate resilience and adaptation, risks mitigation, safety.
- Commercial development, financial forecasts, cash flow optimisation.
- International major projects, large and complex projects, multiple projects, projects rescues, public-private-partnerships, crisis management.
- Operational excellence, performance improvement, project control, LEAN Six Sigma, innovation.
- Civil engineering, bridges, roads, structural repairs, earthworks, soil treatment, soil remediation, tramways, airports, nuclear, stadiums.
- Teaching, training of engineers, tutoring, mentoring.
- Integrity, adaptability, action, transparency, diplomacy, benevolence.

CSR

- Development of social and environmental projects mainly in Turkey (earthquake relief), in Malaysia (ecotourism, protection of biodiversity and of indigenous tribes) and in the Maldives (climate resilience for insular populations).
- Board advisor at Pura Regenerative Agriculture (Brazil; pura.eco) to create abundant biodiversity from degraded soils.
- Project manager at Real-Ice (UK; realice.eco) to regenerate one million km2 of Arctic ice to slow down climate change.

Career

2020-2022 Chief operating officer at Colas Projects

- Organise and transform the newly formed subsidiary of the Colas Group specialized in major projects in France and abroad.
- Create a major projects culture bases on system engineering processes.
- Manage fifteen complex infrastructure projects between €50m and €1b on four continents representing €2.5b of contracts. Turnover has quadrupled €500m in three years.

1991-2019 International Project Director at Vinci Construction,
Restructuring of subsidiaries as special advisor of the CEO.
(Vinci Construction Grands Projets, Freyssinet, Menard)

- 2019: Ground treatment for the new military airport in Singapore.
- 2017: Ground treatment at a Russian nuclear power plant in Bangladesh.
- 2015-2016: Operational management of multiple ground improvement projects in Southeast Asia.
- 2014: Restructuring of a subsidiary in South Korea. Change of business model and return to performance and profitability.
- 2013–2014: Restructuring of a subsidiary in Indonesia. Change of business model and increase of the turnover by five folds.
- 2010–2012: Design and installation of next generation stay cables on the longest stay cable bridge in the world and simultaneously on the eighth longest stay cable bridge in the world in Vladivostok, far East Russia.
- 2006–2010: Replacement of damaged stay cables on a bridge under traffic in Malaysia; a world first.
- 2004–2006: Design and construction of a stay cable bridge in Malaysia comprising several construction techniques like beam launching and segmental cantilever method.
- 2001–2004: Earthworks and soil remediation for the new Eurostar line in East London, UK; bridges construction.
- 1998–2001: Construction of an Olympic stadium in Istanbul, Turkey.
- 1997: Technical and commercial studies of dams in Paris head office.
- 1994–1997: Construction of a viaduct for the new airport in Hong Kong.
- 1991–1994: Construction of the first (French) nuclear power plant in China.

Personal projects

- Corporate trainer on project management for Soletanche-Freyssinet Group (over 120 engineers trained). Professor at Hult business school (70 students trained). Professor of sustainable construction for master's student at ESTP Paris (public works engineering school) since 2021.
- Founder of several companies in Asia for real estate construction, project management, eco-luxury tourism, restaurants and high fashion.
- Patented a three-phased current device for the school junior enterprise.
- Speaker at technical conferences in Asia.

Education

- Master's degree in civil engineering and Town Planning from INSA de Rennes (national institute of applied sciences).
- Bachelor of Science in Mathematics and Physics, with honours.
- Training in sustainable development (University of Columbia, University of Illinoy; with honours; online), in Six Sigma, LEAN construction, planning and management, mind mapping, business ethics, inclusive leadership, system engineering (INCOSE).
- Member of APM (association for project management, UK), of PMI (project management institute, US), The Climate Fresk (FR), the Shift Project (FR).
- Speaks French and English (fluent), Spanish (advanced), some Turkish and Russian.